

MISSOURI'S GOVERNORS.

List of the Men Who Have Occupied the Executive Chair.

An incorrect list of the names of men who served as Governor of Missouri is going the rounds of the press. The Tribune offers the following, and if in error in any particular, its esteemed friend, Col. Wm. F. Switzer, of the Booneville Democrat, will no doubt call to account, and he will please bear in mind that we have no reference to Territorial, French and Spanish Governors:

1820—Alexander McNair.
1824—Frederick Bates.
1825—Abraham J. Williams.
1825—John Miller.
1832—Daniel Dunkin.
1836—Lilburn W. Boggs.
1840—Thomas Reynolds.
1844—M. M. Marmaduke.
1844—John C. Edwards.
1848—Austin A. King.
1852—Stelling Price.
1856—Truett Polk.
1857—Hancock Jackson.
1857—Robert M. Stewart.
1861—Claiborn F. Jackson.
1861—Hamilton R. Gamble.
1864—Willard P. Hall.
1865—Joseph R. McClurg.
1871—B. Grants Brown.
1873—Silas Woodson.
1875—Chas. H. Hardin.
1877—John S. Phelps.
1881—Thomas T. Crittenden.
1885—John S. Marmaduke.
1887—Albert P. Morehouse.
1889—David R. Francis.
1893—Wm. J. Stone.

Few Governors of the State are now living. Thos. C. Fletcher is practicing law at Washington. Jos. W. McClurg operated a small steam boat on the Osage river for a number of years and was later appointed land agent for the Springfield district under the administration of President Harrison. Silas Woodson is Judge of the Buchanan County Circuit Court. Thos. T. Crittenden is Consul General to the City of Mexico, and David R. Francis is a well known business man of St. Louis. Wm. J. Stone at present occupies the executive chair and has made a good official record. All other men who ever held the office of Governor of the State of Missouri are numbered with the dead.—Jefferson City Tribune.

When they put a man in jail, he cannot follow his natural inclinations. He cannot eat what he wants to—he is limited to a very frugal diet. Is it not equally true of a dyspeptic? For all the real enjoyment he gets out of life, he might as well be in jail. He cannot eat what he likes, nor enough. He suffers much, gets little sympathy. At first, perhaps a little heaviness in the stomach, a little sourness, windy belchings and heartburn; headaches and biliousness and a foul taste in the mouth in the morning. Chronic constipation is almost inevitable, and means that the body is holding poisonous, impure matter that should be gotten rid of. The poison is being reabsorbed into the blood and the whole body. Impurity may lead to almost any disease. Constipation is the start of it all. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation, cures it so it stays cured. No other remedy in the world will do that.

Both Measures Defective.

Washington, Jan. 30.—Senator Vilas of Wisconsin followed Mr. Mitchell. The house bill Mr. Vilas said, had been strangled by silver and deserved its fate. Partisanship or imbecility or both had again as a year ago, stricken congress with paralysis. The bond bill as it came from the house was a mere sham and fraud, and deserved to be consigned to the hecatombs of folly's progeny where the financial deeds of congress for many years seemed to belong. He turned from it to the graft which the finance committee had sprouted on it. It was a bad stock grafted with a worse scion. The best hope was that both would shrivel and die in the desert air of the senate.

A Prehistoric City.

Albuquerque, N. M., Jan. 29.—There is much excitement at Chilli, a mountain town forty miles east of here, over a search for gold treasures. A week ago a camp of gypsies was established on the creek running through Chilli and near that town. The gypsy chief of the band told several Mexicans that by digging in a certain direction they would come upon a cedar post, from which point he would further direct them to a spot where a box is buried, containing, it is said, three millions in gold. The gypsy chief, with his band, then left for the ruins of Gran Guivera, but told the Mexicans not to pursue their search after the discovery to the post, until his return.

The post was found, the spot indicated by the gypsy. Zealous individuals continued work and have unearthed the walls of a prehistoric dwelling—in fact, have exposed the beginning of what promises to be the ruins of an extinct Indian or Spanish City. Everybody who has pick and shovel is at work. The post is fenced in by chains and several men stand guard with shot guns and everybody is anxiously awaiting the return of the gypsy chief.

Drunk in the Jury Box.

Terre Haute, Ind., Jan. 20.—At the opening of the trial this morning of Dan Keller, his wife and sister, on the charge of murdering Clara Shanks, the court and counsel were dumfounded to find that one of the jurors, Mr. Soules, was drunk. In the jury box he blinked and grinned for an hour, while the crowd stared at him and the judge lawyers consulted as to the best method of proceeding without the danger of a mistrial. Finally the defense, by agreement, made a motion to discharge the jury and excuse permanently Mr. Soules. Then the eleven were sworn as a new jury obtained. Mr. Soules was placed under bond for contempt of court. The day was taken up with the opening statements by the counsel and the hearing of the direct testimony of the mother of Clara Shanks.

Mortality in New York.

New York, Jan. 29.—The state board of health has completed its annual report for the year of 1895. The report will contain a summary of the mortality of the state for the year, and states that have reported in the monthly bulletin during the year. There were 121,315 deaths. This is 3,500 more than in 1894, but less than any previous year since 1890. Delayed returns, not recorded in the bulletin, to the number of 4,500 deaths, making the actual mortality for the year 126,235. The estimate reported population is 6,650,000, which makes a death rate for the year 19 per 1,000 population. In 1894 it was 18.75; in 1893, 19.50; in 1892, 20.78; in 1891, 21.43, and in 1890, 19.65.

St. Johns, N. F., Jan. 29.—A petition from the unemployed request work or bread was presented to Governor Murray last night, and work was begun in the city to-day, nearly 200 men being employed in cleaning the streets of the accumulation of snow in the recent storm. Dispatches to the local papers from Fortune Bay say that such poverty was never seen in that bay before, and it is hard to tell what the end will be from a knowledge of the condition of the people there and the consequences of the failure of the herring fisheries. It is well known in this city that these statements are in no wise exaggerated.

Poisons engendered by food fermenting in a dyspeptic stomach are the direct cause of rheumatism, gout, bronchitis, liver and kidney complaints, asthma, pneumonia and many nervous ailments.

These results are prevented by the use of the Shaker Digestive Cordial, a remedy discovered and prepared by the Shakers of Mount Lebanon, N. Y. It is in itself a food and has power to digest other food taken with it. Thus it rests the diseased stomach and finally masters the worst cases of dyspepsia. It acts promptly and fresh strength and increase of weight soon follows. The first dose, taken immediately after eating, abates the pain and distress so dreaded by dyspeptics. Trial bottles—enough to prove its merit—10 cents.

Laxol is the best medicine for children. Doctors recommend it in place of Castor Oil.

"Tip" For a Thief at a Revival.

Wellfleet, Neb., January 28.—Mrs. Jane Houston, the bank President's wife, lost diamonds and other jewelry last night valued at $50,000. Mort Green, whom the authorities were shadowing as a dangerous suspect, dropped into the Free Methodist revival meeting last night in time to hear Mrs. Houston explain, in giving her "experience," that she had just discarded her diamonds and other jewelry, which she thought ungodly to wear. She said she left all of her jewelry on her dresser when she left her house for church.

Green left the church, broke into the Houston house and found that she had told the truth. He took everything in sight, and left a note saying he was glad he could remove temptation from the good woman. The authorities are after him.

Verdict Too Severe.

Cary Elliston, colored, was convicted in Circuit Court Tuesday by a jury, of burglary and larceny.

Christmas week, 1894, Cary broke into the barber shop of Ed. Swindle, in the classic confines of Sahara avenue, and did take, steal and carry away one pair of clippers, the property of barber Swindle. For this he was arrested and the case clearly proven against him.

The lowest sentence allowable under the statute for these offenses was five years—three for the burglary and two for the larceny count in the indictment. This was out of proportion to the insignificant theft committed, so at the suggestion of Judge Lay, the jury signed a petition asking Gov. Stone to commute Cary's sentence to three years in the penitentiary.—Clinton Democrat.

Dr. Brooks Called to London.

Memphis, Tenn., Jan. 30.—Dr. John A. Brooks has received a call to London Tabernacle, the largest Christian church in Europe. Dr. Brooks was the first Prohibition candidate for Governor of Missouri in 1884, and in 1888 he was nominated for Vice President by the national Prohibition convention. He was for many years supreme master workman Ancient Order of United Workmen. He resigned the pastorate of the Memphis Linden Street Christian church in July last and has devoted himself to evangelical work since time. Dr. Brooks has not yet accepted the call to London.

Atkinson's Forces.

Des Moines, Ia., Jan. 30.—Iowa proposes to send the National Convention in St. Louis the largest delegation that will go from any single State. A convention of representatives of the Republican clubs of the State will be held here next week to plan for the event.

It is proposed to send several special trains, leaving this city in time to make the Iowans the first delegates on the ground. Headquarters will be opened in all the large hotels, and a marching club of several thousand is proposed.

San Antonio, Tex., Jan. 30.—A Mexican named Aurelian Castello was shot to death and his clothes saturated with coal oil and burned on the Medina river, about 16 miles west of here, last night. Hugh and Watson Stanford, two well-to-do farmers living near the scene of the crime, have been arrested charged with the murder. The Mexican had been working for the Stanfords and several days ago assaulted their sister, a 16-year-old girl of unsound mind.

Denver, Col., Jan. 30.—Pinkerton detectives have arrested Express Agent Kout of Colorado Springs on the charge of being implicated in the theft of $30,000 from the Wells Fargo company several months ago. His father, who recently came to Colorado Springs from Carro, Ill., was also arrested on a train at Watsonburg, as he was leaving the state and about $4,600 was found sewed up in his clothing.

"Trust Those Who Have Tried."

Catarrh caused hoarseness and difficulty in speaking. I also to a great extent lost hearing. By the use of Ely Cream Balm dropping of mucus has ceased and my hearing has greatly improved.—J. W. Davidson, Att'y at Law, Monmouth, Ill.

I used Ely's Cream Balm, for catarrh and I have received great benefit. I believe it to be a safe and certain cure. Very pleasant to take.—Wm. Frazer, Rochester, N. Y.

Price of Cream Balm is fifty cents.

Imposed Swift Justice.

Bluefield, W. Va., Jan. 29.—Alex Jones, a negro desperado of Elk-horn, boarded a westbound passenger train last night at Keystone, evidently for the purpose of having trouble. He was under the influence of liquor and very boisterous. He abused the conductor and refused to pay his fare. Jones then pulled two revolvers and commenced firing at random through the car, which was crowded with people, emptying both arms. After the shooting it was discovered that W. H. Strother, postmaster at Elk-horn, was shot through the abdomen, causing death almost instantly. Conductor McCullough was shot in the side, but not seriously, and Peter Rice, a colored miner, was shot through the right breast and will probably die. Jones was arrested and placed on the 2 o'clock train for Huntington. While passing Hemphill the train was flagged by a mob of fifty men, who took Jones from the train and hanged him to a tree, and shot his body full of lead.
